HOWLERS AT NEW ORLEANS

MISGUIDED PERSONS GATHER AT THE JUDGES' STAND AND HOOT THE STARTER.

Milford Takes the Measure of Lotus Eater and Probably Is a Good One-Frizette Runs a Fast Race-Carew Wins at Last.

New Orleans, La., April 10.—A faulty start in the fourth race, the afternoon's feature, which brought about the defeat of Lotus Eater, the favorite, resulted in an idiotic demonstration such as is now and then seen on a race track and for a time much unseemly noise was made. The field of six was dispatched in straggling order with Lotus Eater and Grimaldi, the latter a sharply supported second choice, practically left at the post. Milford, which had been away from the post in a forward position, raced Teo Beach into subjection quickly and when Lotus Eater challenged in the stretch, he shook him off and won like a rare good one. A portion of the crowd surrounded the judges' stand and gave vent to cat calls and hisses directed at the starter. A number of policemer were required to disperse the turbulent persons and restore normal conditions.

Aside from the above incident today's sport was devoid of sharp interest and developed little to enthuse over.

Rough riding in the opening race on the part of G. Swain was responsible for the easy victory of Autumn Maid, but as no complaint of foul was made, the judges allowed the result to stand as the horses finished. Swain's action in cutting across from the outside to the inside rail soon after the start caused the other starters to become crowded and by the time they managed to extricate themselves from the tangle, Autumn Maid was many lengths in the lead and the others strung out over a sixteenth of ground:

In the succeeding race Raimondo was also bene fited by a jam which came soon after the start, but, showing the most speed, led the others to the finish. Pat Sharp, a newcomer here, was well backed, but could only gain third place.

Ben Double upset all calculations by winning the third race from Topsy Robinson and Mr. Peabody, both favored in the betting.

The sprint race went to Frizette, which proved much the best, leading throughout and winning from Frontenac in fast time.

Hyphen, under a good ride from Nicol, outlasted Whisk Broom in a sharp last furlong drive and managed to win by a scant length.

In the closing race the long-overdue Carew had matters his own way and won in a canter from

GOV. HUGHES' LATEST ANTI-RACING MOVE.

Albany, N. Y., April 10 .- Governor Hughes today instructed Secretary of State Whalen to issue a call for a special election in the forty-seventh senatorial district, consisting of Niagara and Orleans counties, to elect a successor to the late Governor Hughes, it is reported in official circles, will also shortly issue a call for a special session of the legislature to meet after the new senator is elected. The purpose of the special session is to legislative action on the recommendation made by the chief executive in his message of yesterday, among them being another effort pass the Agnew-Hart bills, should the new senator elected favor their passage.

MEXICAN DERBY IS FOR MEXICAN HORSES.

The directors of the Jockey Club of Mexico City have settled the long-pending dispute as to the conditions for the first Mexican National Derby, be run in 1910. It was decided by the directors a few days ago that nominations for the race should limited to thoroughbred colts and filies foaled in the republic in 1907. Notice has been sent to that they must register their foals on April 30 next, but unless fifty colts and fillies foaled last year are entered in the thoroughbred book of Mexico on that date racing men can purchase foreign-bred colts or fillies be eligible for the race if entered on or beember 1, 1908. As Mexican breeding sharps say that seventy-two foals were dropped in 1907 it would seem to be an easy matter to have fifty istered for the Derby. The race will be worth about $15,000.

MANY GOOD HORSES NOW AT LEXINGTON. RACES RUN UNDER ADVERSE CONDITIONS.

Cottontown Shows Improvement and May Stand Training-Great Things Claimed for Nimbus.

Lexington, Ky., April 10.-Nimbus, Kentucky Beau, R. C. Rann, Cottontown, Honest, King's Daughter, Lady Anne, Sempro, Water Light, Barns dale, Skyo, Orison, Lady Vie, May Jene, Dick Fin-Keith, Ardis, Enlist, Marmorean and nell, Mamie Gallagher are the most representative of the tried horses here. More than one-half of the 400 horses are two-year-olds that have yet to make their first starts. The majority of these are culls from the breeding farms, but a goodly number have shown trials that indicate that they will do to go out in competition with some that were counted stars in the yearling sales of 1907, if reports of the performances of the latter at other tracks can be depended upon. A few of the younger division well worth tabbing are French Cook, Toppington. Charley Hill, White Face, Jeff Bernstein, Cavarone, Hybla, Charlotte Hamilton, Philip, Neoga, Major Lawrence, Nostoc, Leaper, Willow Plume, Becky Backer and Fencing Girl. The majority of the races, will, of course, be for purses of $400, but once the barrier rises they will run as far and as fast for that as they would for $4,000.

Cottontown has not taken a lame step since he came up from P. J. Millett's farm in Bourbon county and trainer Groesche is now of the opinion that he will stand training this year, though, of he will be in no position to tell definitely until he has put the horse through more strenuou When he went to the farm last fall Cettontown's tenden was in such condition that there seemed little chance of his ever getting to the post

R. C. Rann is doing well enough in the barn of J. C. Milam, but his three races at New Orleans lost him many supporters here. When R. L. Baker bought the son of Lactantius for $3,700 at the sale of the Stoll horses here last November everybody thought he had a bargain and there were many who were willing to say that he had the Kentucky Derby as good as in his pocket; but now it is different. If R. C. Rann should win that race he must im wonderfully in the brief time between now and May 5. He may do it, but if he does he will surprise more than a handful of people.

France Brooks, the colored man who looks after the stable of Woodford Clay, says he does not believe there is a three-year-old in the west, and probably none in the east, that can take the measure of Nimbus going five and one-half furlongs. The son of Star Shoot was a good racer last year and he will surely be a better one this year. Mr. Clay's norses will be shipped to New York about May 1, though the young man from Bourbon county may decide to leave a week earlier.

Trainer Charles Hughes is planning to go east with the Ziegler horses about the 20th.

The story was sent out from New Orleans that Mr. Ziegler had offered Louis A. Cella $20,000 for Marse Abe. That was not exactly the proposition. He offered $20,000 for Marse Abe and Sea Swell. Mr. Cella, however, would not let them go.

Last Wednesday at Dixiana Farm there were born three fine bay colts by Ben Strome out of the mares Beldaga (dam of Ben Stone), Monita, a young laughter of Hamburg, and Cheesecloth, by Chevening. The eight previous foals at the farm had been

WESTERN CANADA TURF ASSOCIATION.

At the meeting of representatives of all the larger towns in northwest Canada held at Calgary last week, the organization of the Western Canada Turf Association was effected and the following steward were elected: Mr. Moody, of Calgary, who is also president of the association; Mr. Alexander, of Saskatoon; Mr. Stewart, of Edmonton; Mr. Martin, of Moose Jaw, and Mr. Humphreys, of Lethbridge.

Owing to the fact that Winnipeg and Brandon want the same dates and neither of the two towns would yield, it was decided to leave Manitoba out of the circuit and that province will conduct an independent series of meetings. The Western Canada Turf Association now controls through its officers and board of stewards all meetings for running races in Saskatchewan, Alberta and British Columbia, and the association has adopted the rules of the Pacific Jockey Club. Not less than $1,000 a day will be offered by any club in the organization during the coming season.

FEE LONG DELAYED IN REACHING ITS OWNER

An unusual incident occurred in the offices of the Washington Jockey Club last Wednesday when Clerk of the Course H. G. Crickmore handed steeplechase jockey Ernest Huppe a $10 bill with the explanation that it was Huppe's fee for his first mount. Huppe, who is now the regular rider for J. W. Colt, began his career in the saddle in races on the flat and his first mount was on Pontifex in the first race at Sheepshead Bay, July 8, 1897, in which he finished third from last in a big field of maiden two-yearolds. The fee for losing mounts was $10, which the Coney Island Jockey Club collected, but through careless bookkeeping the fee never reached its owner until last week, when Secretary Smith, in delving through some old records, found the and also discovered that it had never been paid and forthwith sent a check to Mr. Crickmore, requesting him to hand the long delayed remittance t Huppe, who says he had forgotten that he had never Drizzling Rain Confines Crowd to Regulars-Defeat of Kwai Brings Distress to His Backers.

Washington, D. C., April 10 .- A cold drizzling rain which began this morning continued throughout the afternoon, and as a result the attendance was the smallest of the meeting, with the grandstand practically deserted. Only regulars braved the inclement weather to see the races, which on paper would have been devoid of much prospective interest save for the handicap at the bottom of the card, in which Jubilee, Oxford and other good performers vere to have met over a mile course.

Oraculum's chances to win the opening race appealed to the wise set and the George Odom horse, with "Puddin" McDaniel in the saddle, was accorded the post of favoritism, but ran poorly and occupied a middle position throughout the running of the race. Dr. Lee was returned the winner after'a spirited stretch drive with Simple Honours Nanno taking third place. Right and True threw his rider as the barrier was sprung.

The defeat of Frederick Johnson's Kwai in the econd race was a hard blow. On the strength of his good showing under colors on the first day of the meeting, he was made the choice, being backed with rare confidence, but the colt did not appear to take kindly to the track, which was fetlock deep in mud, and ran poorly. Dan de Noyles was favored by the track conditions and led through-Miss Granville closed a big gap in the last half and finished fast and gamely.

Spencer Wells was much the best of the five colts which went in the third race and, rushing into a big lead right after the start, increased his advantage with every stride. Dress Parade outgamed the big Madden colt, Footloose, in the last stride of a close finish for second place.

Greeno won his first race of the meeting when he took the fourth race in a canter from King of Bashan and Comedienne. The latter set the early pace but tired badly in the closing drive. Cartwheel was an easy winner in the fifth race. He was under restraint to the stretch, where T. Burns took him to the front and was never in trouble thereafter. Octoic showed the most early speed, but relinquished the lead in the stretch and finished third. Jockey W. Burns, a brother of the rider of the winner, made his first appearance in the saddle this year on Hartford Boy, which fin-

After several futile attempts Animus finally won a purse for G. W. Langdon. The withdrawal of Jubilee and Oxford left the winner as the natural choice and he went to the post a pronounced favor

It was rumored today that the senate committee on the District of Columbia, of which Senator Carter of Montana is chairman, will report the bill to the senate next Monday. Several congressmen who were at the track this afternoon are of the opinion that the result of the vote at Albany will have a salutary effect in the United States senate when action is taken on the Sims rider. "It looks to me," remarked Congressman Joseph L. Rhinock of Kentucky, "as though a re action against the hysterical spasm of virtue that has vexed the land so long has set in. The result of the fight for racing at Albany will hearten the states.'

Track superintendent Stranahan was not at the track today owning to the serious illness of his

FOXHALL KEENE'S VIEW OF BETTING.

Foxhall Keene returned from Europe recently with some reflections on the bill that seeks to abolish betting at the race track. After remarking that he had been away on his "usual occupation of enjoying himself," he said that the best people of all civilized nations went to the horse races and believed in horse racing.

"The racing of horses," Mr. Keene said, "has een and always will be the greatest sport of the world. It has tennis, baseball, yachting and all the other sports combined skinned to death Who is this little governor who is advocating the abolition of racing? Who ever heard of him six years ago? Did he ever see a horse race? What does he know about it? As James R. Keene said, the reformers look only on one side of a thing. There may be a political side to this question, too. Everybody knows that Pat McCarren caused Hughes' election by turning 30,000 votes from Hearst. Perhaps,' and here Mr. Keene smiled ironically, is trying to save Pat and his friends from losing ore money on the races. I just wish Mr. Hughes won't get elected president. As to the betting part of racing, I might compare it to the box office of a theater. You know what the box office is to the theater."

NEW STUD FARM FOR CALIFORNIA.

C. H. Weiderman and P. Lynch have associated as a nucleus of a breeding establishment at Weider Gonzales, in Monterey county, California. They have bought from Walker the eight-year-old bay mare, Isabelita, by Rey el Santa Anita-Teodolina, and the four-year old brown filly, Old Colony, by Yankee Cornelia, Several mares which Lynch is now racing at Oakland will soon be sent to the farm and others will be acquired by purchase during the spring.

GOOD RACING AT OAKLAND

DOWNPATRICK TAKES THE PRINCIPAL FEA-TURE OF THE AFTERNOON IN A CANTER.

Yada Reverses with Lord Nelson-Owner Dayton Intends to Show New Yorkers How Fast Jack Nunnally Can Run.

Oakland, Cal., April 10.-Walter Miller is still ncapacitated from riding and the absence of the star jockey from the Oakland race course is keenly regretted by the general public. He is suffering from a sore throat and may not be seen in the saddle again until next week.

Today's card contained no stake feature, but was an all-around good one, nevertheless. nounced outsider or favorite finished in front in any of the six races. Every winner was accorded plentiful support. Two favorites, three second choices and one fourth choice were successful.

Eight of the best horses in training were engaged in the fourth race at one mile and a sixteenth. The start was very bad, the favorite, Ocean Shore, and Frank Flittner being virtually left at the post. The somewhat inconsistent Downpatrick scored a sensational victory, winning away off from Hilgert and Vov Populi, the only other horses that got away

Yada reversed his previous running with Lord Nelson in convincing fashion in the last race, but the latter was given a poor ride besides being unlucky

William Cahill has purchased the two-year-old chestnut colt, Captain John, by Yellow Tail—Playful, from C. M. Van Gorden, for $4,000, and Oakland experts claim that the colt, at that price, is the best bargain in horseflesh they have seen in years. Captain John is one of the largest youngsters in training and has all the earmarks of a colt of the first magnitude

Thomas H. Williams, Barney Schreiber and William Cahill are three coast turfmen who expect to make several nominations each to the stakes offered by the Montreal Jockey Club to be run at the Blue Bonnets course next June.

Trainer D. Henry will leave for Woodlands Farm at Bridgeport, Mo., tonight to take up the big band of two-year-olds Barney Schreiber will race on the New York tracks this season.

A. I. Dayton is planning a campaign on the New York tracks with his two cracks, Neva Lee and Jack Nunnally. The last named holds the American race record for the fastest five furlongs.

W. D. Millard, with four racers, J. E. Cushing with three, Wilson & Caren with two, and J. Gardner with two, are recent arrivals from Santa Anita.

R. C. Chambers and Charles Walker, who have controlled the betting privileges on the Parmer-

Hendrie tracks in Canada of late years, are here. It is reported that Tanforan will be converted into a mile and an eighth track and will be raced wer exclusively by the New California Jockey Club during the wet weather next year.

Jockey John Bullman and "Bishop" Poole are recent arrivals.

Jim Norvell leaves for Indiana tomorrow.

NO PECKSNIFFIANISM IN AUSTRALIA

A visitor in New York last week was W. A. Craven of Australia, for twenty years Deputy Speaker of the Victoria Parliament. Mr. Craven said that racing in Australia, as in England, France, Germany and other foreign countries, is virtually under the auspices of the government and that bet ting is not only legalized but indulged in by per-"Australia has not escaped the reform wave which, it seems, has been sweeping over the world,' said Mr. Craven. "Prohibition and war on betting have claimed the attention of the people and the legislative bodies of Australia for several years.

"While Australia is not behind other countries in its efforts to minimize national evils the people are lovers of personal liberty and no legislation looking to a contravention of the wishes of a majority of the people would be tolerated. We believe that restrictions in the sale of liquor and betting are proper, and the several states of Australia have enacted legislation with this end in view. There is no better governed country in the world, we be It is next to impossible to get a drink in the principal cities of Australia on Sunday, and where a few years ago gambling was carried on in many places it has now been stamped out. is a difference, however, between gambling and betting on the races, and the legislative bodies of Australia have recognized this fact.

"On all the race courses of Australia betting is permitted on the day's racing and the sport is patronized by the best people of the country, including high officials and legislators. It is a national sport. Australia takes a national pride in her thoroughbred and the government is doing every thing it can to foster and encourage the breeding this noble animal. It has been our experience that by the wise laws enacted through which the low lation at the race courses has been placed on a plane and has proved to be a benefit rather than a Cholk Hedrick, after being patiently reserved in close pursuit of My Pal for a mile and an eighth, made good decisively at the end. My Pal made the running by a wide gap almost throughout and succumbed in the last sixteenth of a game effort. Gannet closed up quickly in the middle running and was a fast going third.
